SOMETHING PRETTY MAGICAL HAPPENS AT CAMP EDMO

Kids stretch their imaginations. They tackle new challenges. They discover their creative potential, the thrill of science and engineering, and the beauty of the natural world.

In the process, they unleash their native curiosity and tap into new reserves of courage. They also learn that the more they practice kindness — to themselves and others — the happier they feel.

This entire experience is the product of the EDMO Method we've been perfecting since 2004. Your kids will love it, and they'll learn from it.

WE BELIEVE IN CREATING WELL-ROUNDED HUMANS

We know it in our hearts, and research confirms it — kids who are curious, courageous and kind are happiest. They evolve into the sort of passionate, balanced human beings who make the world a better place.

Our two founders created EDMO to nurture this kind of growth. Campers enjoy a lively blend of indoor and outdoor activities peppered with rallies, games, and lots of collaborative lab time. It's the perfect summer setting for kids to develop mind, body, heart, and spirit.

WE BELIEVE IN STAFF WHO LEAD BY EXAMPLE

Like each camper, each of our staff members is on his or her own journey of self-realization. We shower them with care, training and support. We provide them a rock-solid framework for teaching. Then we give them latitude to lead. Kids' experience of camp is their experience of their Counselors and Instructors. Your kids are in good hands.

WE BELIEVE IN GLORIOUS DIVERSITY

EDMO is structured as a non-profit, to give all kids access to the pleasures and rewards of summer camp. Diversity is an uplifting dimension of the EDMO experience. When kids from a range of economic backgrounds learn to relate to and have fun with each other, the impact is profound. Currently, 27 percent of our campers receive some level of financial assistance. We won't rest until we've grown that number to at least 50 percent.
