Instructors

The instructors for this class are Amanda Duisenberg and Tristan Harness. Both have appeared in many local productions and have worked in all aspects of staging shows.

Amanda Duisenberg is a recent graduate of William Jessup University with degrees in Theatre Arts and Vocal Performance. She has performed, directed and designed sound throughout the Sacramento area for 15 years, working heavily with RCT, RTAA, WJU, WHS and Quail Glen Elementary, receiving three Elly Nominations. She has worked as a guest director here at Rocklin directing productions of Cinderella, Shrek, The Lion King, My Son Pinocchio and the upcoming Beauty and the Beast. She is excited to continue her education this fall at NYU where she will be pursuing a Master's in Vocal Performance for Musical Theatre. She is incredibly thankful for the opportunities Rocklin Community Theatre has given her.

Tristan Harness is recent graduate of Bennington College with a BA in Drama, Music, Politics, and French. She has been performing since her junior year of high school at Woodcreek High School, RTAA, Finn Hall, and assisting Amanda Duisenberg with the Quail Glen program every year since then as well! She has taught musical theater, improv, rock band, and acting basics at the Magik Children's Theatre and assistant directed at AtticRep, both professional theaters in San Antonio, Texas. She has also performed in directing showcases and cabaret series during an apprenticeship at the prestigious Williamstown Theater Festival in Massachusetts. She is excited to be back home as a teacher and guest artist for the upcoming production of Beauty and the Beast Jr. before moving to New York City in the fall, where she will continue her performance career.
